

CID in the Media

The Cambodian Institute for Democracy (CID) is a leading advocate for policy influence and public awareness in Cambodia. Since its establishment in late 2019, CID has played a crucial role in informing the public, shaping policies, and driving positive change through evidence-based advocacy and media engagement. Our President, Chanroeun Pa, has been interviewed and quoted by the media over 1,000 times, underscoring CID's dedication to providing expert analysis and fostering informed discussions. Committed to promoting freedom of expression, press freedom, human rights, and democratic values, CID strategically engages with the media to amplify critical perspectives and ensure key issues reach stakeholders and decision-makers. Through its media presence, CID continues to be a trusted and influential voice in Cambodia's democratic landscape.
